BURLINGTON OFFICIALS

LEAVE THEIR OFFICES AND DO THEIR OWN SWITCHING.

They Are Prepared for a Long Fight, If Necessary—The Strikers Will Make It Uncomfortable for Their Successors—The Switchmen's Statement—Labor News.

CHICAGO, March 29.—The News says: Whatever hope may have lurked in the breasts of its old employees that the Burlington company would yield under the pressure of the switchmen's strike died away yesterday. The officials have buckled on their armor for a prolonged fight if necessary, and the scenes in the yards yesterday were those of a battle without violence. Officials threw down the pen and grappled with a switchman. Solitary switch engines, crowded with Pinkerton guards puffed defiance at the striking on lookers and the slow but steady shifting of freight cars told of anything but compromise.

On the side of the strikers, both engineers and switchmen, yesterday there was a jubilant feeling over the trouble they were giving the Burlington road. There is no longer any doubt that the men believe they are out of the company's employ for good, and as a consequence are prepared to make a little fight before allowing their successors to work peacefully. There is no longer any talk of compromise at the Grand Pacific headquarters.

The evidence accumulates that an understanding exists between the engineers, firemen, switchmen and brakemen of the Burlington road as to their policy in the present strike. A meeting was held yesterday at which all four unions were represented and their grievances discussed.

At Johnson and Sixteenth streets the yards were quiet this morning and four switch engines were moving with a few switchmen at work. About fifty Pinkerton men were on guard, although their presence seemed unnecessary, as none of the strikers had appeared up to 10 o'clock.

The new men all along the yards to Western avenue were working without hindrance, and seemed able to handle all the work required of them. From one end of the yards to the other no strikers were to be seen.

At the general offices of the Burlington company it was learned that fifteen new switchmen had been engaged this morning, making a force of about fifty switchmen now at work.

The officials claim that by to-morrow the full working force of the Chicago yards, 150 men, will have been secured. They say all the men thus far engaged have been picked up in Chicago.

Why the Switchmen Struck.

CHICAGO, March 29.—A number of eastern switchmen arrived yesterday to take the places of the Burlington strikers. The latter say they struck, fearing to work longer with the incompetent new engineers employed on the road. They publish a statement, in which the following points are made: "The officials were notified by nearly all the men that they would not work with these men, and they acted in quitting the same as they did in notifying them—as individuals. The switchmen of the entire Burlington system were in the same condition that the Chicago switchmen were, and acted in the same manner."

"Inasmuch as the engineers and firemen, through their proper officers, offered before their strike, since, and do now, offer to submit the whole matter pertaining to the strike to a committee of three managers of any three first-class roads running into Chicago, we cannot see the justice in asking men to sacrifice their lives and limbs on the altar of any man's petty pride or self-importance."

Safe Blacksmiths Walk Out.

CINCINNATI, March 29.—The blacksmiths at Hall's Safe and Lock company, fifty in number, have gone out on a strike. The probabilities are that there will be a general strike in all departments within a few days. District No. 48 has not ordered the strike, the men having gone out as individuals. Their action is similar to that of the Blacksmiths in the recent shoe strike. The strikers claim that the firm has been breaking the bill of wages agreed upon last May, which were to remain in effect for one year. By that agreement they were advanced 10 per cent.

All Strike but One Man.

LINCOLN, March 29.—Thirty switchmen employed in the Burlington & Missouri yards in this city went out on a strike last night. This includes the entire night force, with the exception of one man. The day force are expected to refuse to work. The work in the yards last night was being done by the yardmaster and his assistant and the one man who remained.

Knights Taking the Vacant Places.

PITTSBURG, March 29.—A carload of Knights of Labor brakemen and conductors from the Reading system passed through the city from the east this morning, en route to Chicago to take the places of the striking switchmen of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy road. There were seventy-five in the party and more will follow.

Death of a Schoolmate of General Grant.

RIPLEY, O., March 29.—William Maddox, an old pioneer of this place, died this morning of softening of the brain. He was born in Adams county in 1821. He was teacher and superintendent in the Sunday school here for over forty years. He was a schoolmate of late President Grant. During the late war he was the soldiers' friend. Everybody loved "Uncle Bill," as he was called. He leaves a wife and two sons.

Negro Murderer Hanged by a Mob.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 29.—At a ball given by a party of colored people at a plantation south of Australia landing, in Bolivar county, one crap-shooter shot and killed another. The murderer was secured by friends of the victim and hanged to a tree on the levee.

Roadbeds in Bad Condition.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 29.—Notice was given yesterday to the superintendents of railroads running into this city not to run passenger trains on full time at present, owing to the dangerous condition of the roadbeds from storms of the last few days. Washouts are constantly reported.

A SERIOUS WRECK.

A Sleeper Smashed and Several Passengers Injured—An Engineer Responsible.

CHICAGO, March 29.—About 10 o'clock Tuesday night a freight train on the Belt Line road, ran into the rear end of the Michigan Central express which leaves Chicago at 9:10 p. m., at Burnside, a small station two miles below Grand crossing. The rear sleeper on the passenger train was almost entirely demolished and a number of passengers were seriously injured. The names of two of the wounded are: C. C. Hoyle, of 203 East Twenty-first street; George A. Magoon, of Muskegon. The engineer and fireman on the freight engine leaped just in time to save their lives.

Several roads cross the Michigan Central at that point. The latter has the right of way in all cases, but the neglect of this rule is alleged brought about the collision. The gates were down as usual, and the signal lights displayed. All the Michigan express train had crossed the tracks of the Wabash & Western Indiana, when the freight train, under a full head of steam, broke through the gates and crashed into it.

The engine struck the sleeper directly in the middle, nearly cut it in two, tore it from its couplings and threw it from the tracks. The engine was derailed and three or four freight cars were telescoped and piled up on it. Meanwhile the passengers who were buried in the wreck of the sleeper were shouting for help. The trainmen procured lanterns and dragged from the wreck a dozen passengers, five of them seriously injured and the others badly shaken up. None was fatally hurt.

The engineer of the freight train, who is alleged to be responsible for the accident, saved his life by jumping from his engine. He was not to be found after the wreck. The firemen of the freight train also jumped from it. The wreck obstructed all the suburban tracks.

A reporter called at the office of the Michigan Central, but the official were very reticent in regard to the matter, and no definite statement could be obtained from them. They admitted that an accident had occurred and that several persons were hurt, but denied that anyone had been killed.

HE SOUGHT REVENGE.

A Ten-Year-Old Boy of Girard, Illinois, Shoots His Father's Murderer.

GIRARD, Ill., March 29.—David Wine-land, a carpenter, while under the influence of liquor the last of last November, quarreled with and shot W. H. Deitz, proprietor of a billiard hall, the wound causing the death of Deitz some two months later. Wine-land is now under a heavy bond to the circuit court, and at home.

Tuesday afternoon, as Wine-land was walking along the street with his little girl, James Deitz, ten years old, the adopted son of W. H. Deitz, slipped up behind him and shot him in the back, using a .32-caliber bull dog. The ball entered just below the left kidney, and has not been located. The wound is pronounced very serious, if not fatal. The boy was immediately arrested. He says no one put him up to it; that Wine-land had killed his father, and that it made him angry to see him walking around, so he thought he would shoot him. The boy was taken to Carlinville to be confined in the county jail to await examination.

Columbus Notes.

COLUMBUS, O., March 29.—The senate bill authorizing the commissioners to take $2,000 of the people's money, and spend it in making an exhibit at the Columbus centennial, was passed.

The two cent a mile bill was discussed nearly all morning in the senate, and was finally laid over until April 6.

A resolution to attend Chief Justice Waite's funeral in a body was adopted.

The house passed bills as follows: Giving magistrates jurisdiction in offenses against the laws prohibiting the adulteration of food; Mack's senate bill authorizing city councils to take a census whenever desired. This is now a law. Alexander's senate bill to expedite the collection and publication of school statistics was laid over until next Wednesday. A long discussion arose over Senator Coulter's bill to grade teachers' certificates of state, county and city examiners, and pending the discussion the noon recess was taken.

The governor and state officials went to Toledo to attend Chief Justice Waite's funeral.

Metropolitan Claim Compromised.

CINCINNATI, March 29.—Judge Sage has ordered a 20 per cent. compromise of the claim of $20,000 of Receiver McConville, of the Metropolitan bank, against the steamer Guiding Star company. Messrs. Roth, Ryan, Gerke and Duckworth, directors of the Metropolitan, consented to the compromise. The petition alleges that the receiver held notes of the company amounting to $20,000, without collateral security, and that they are part of the assets of the bank. The company is insolvent, and its assets consist of the steamer Guiding Star, valued at $15,000, on which there are liens amounting to the same sum. The boat has been running in the interest of the Coney Island resort.

Obscene Literature Must Go.

CINCINNATI, March 29.—Col. Deitsch has declared war upon the circulation of obscene literature. He has discovered that a great many saloonkeepers have had obscene doggerel verses printed upon the back of their business cards and have circulated them to the detriment of the public morals. The Society for the Suppression of Vice will take an active interest in the prosecution, and hopes, with the co-operation of Col. Deitsch and the police, to eradicate this growing evil.

Raging Waters.

DES MOINES, Iowa, March 29.—Advises from above Sioux City state that people living opposite the mouth of the Big Sioux are leaving their homes because of the encroachment of the waters of the Missouri. A big gorge at Cottonwood Hill, thirty miles above this city, still holds and is growing larger and stronger every day. The big flat near Jackson, Dak., is overflowed to a depth of several feet, and some stock has been lost.

Don Cameron Not a Candidate.

NEW YORK, March 29.—The Evening Post's Washington special says: Senator Don Cameron authorizes the statement that he is not a candidate for the presidency.

THE DEAD CHIEF JUSTICE.

PUBLIC OBSEQUIES IN WASHINGTON OVER THE REMAINS.

A Throng of Distinguished Persons Present—The Ceremonies Very Simple—Second and Third Days' Sessions of the International Council of Women.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The house of representatives—floor galleries and corridors—was filled with a distinguished and interesting crowd, gathered to witness the public funeral services over the remains of Chief Justice Waite. Shortly before 12 m. President Cleveland and the cabinet entered, and were seated to the right of the speaker's stand, which was occupied by Mr. Carlisle and Senator Ingalls.

The senators, diplomats and justices of the court occupied seats further back. The hand on the great face of the house clock points to 12 o'clock and five minutes when the six Episcopal clergymen marched solemnly in, followed by the pall bearers, among whom were Senator Sherman and Gen. Grosvenor.

A choir in one of the galleries furnished the music. Dr. Bodine, president of Gambier college, assisted in reading the Episcopal funeral services. The ceremonies were very simple. The coffin had on it a single wreath of flowers and two crossed leaves of palm. The Marine band did not appear and the only persons in uniform were Gen. Sheridan, Kellogg and the members of the Korean legation.

One of the conspicuous figures on the floor of the house was Hon. George Bancroft. Near him sat Governor Jerry Rusk. Mrs. Cleveland had a seat in the gallery, and near her sat Miss Bayard, Mrs. Fairchild, Mrs. Endicott, Mrs. Whitney and Mrs. Don Dickinson. There was a large number of ladies present, and some of them had seats on the floor of the house. Among the latter were Mr. and Mrs. Butterworth.

The family of the chief justice was represented by C. C. Waite and Miss Waite.

One of the busiest men at the funeral was a photographer, who made a score of views from the gallery opposite the speaker's desk.

Senator Sherman and Gen. Grosvenor will accompany the remains to Ohio.

Women's International Council.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Philanthropy and temperance were the chief subjects discussed at Tuesday's session of the women's international council. Mrs. Harriet R. Shattuck, president of the National Woman Suffrage association, of Massachusetts, presided. Isabel C. Barrows read an address on "The Work of Unitarian Women." Mrs. Laura McNair spoke on "Woman as a Missionary." Isabella Boyolet, director of prison reform spoke on her special department of work. Ednah D. Cheney addressed herself to "Hospitals Managed by and for Women." Harriet N. Morris presented her views on "Missionary Work."

At Tuesday's evening session Frances E. Willard, president of the National Woman's Christian Temperance union, delivered a stirring speech on "Woman and Temperance," and was followed by Hannah W. Smith on "The Latest Evolution of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union," Dr. Mary W. Burnett on "The Temperance Hospital" and others.

Miss Helen Taylor, stepdaughter of John Stewart Mills, cabled from England, refusing to address the congress on account of the attendance upon the convention of Mrs. Ashton Wentworth Dilke, who had also been invited to participate.

Mrs. Dilke is editor of the Radical Weekly Dispatch. Sir Charles Dilke, her husband, is too notorious for Miss Taylor.

This morning's session was well attended when Mrs. Laura M. Johns, president of the Kansas Equal Suffrage association, rapped the assembly to order. Sprinkled throughout the audience were many department clerks, who were given holiday, because of the funeral of the late chief justice, took advantage of the holiday and dropped in to see the ladies, despite the charge of fifty cents admission.

After an invocation, Mrs. Mary A. Livermore, of the American Women's Suffrage association, delivered an exceedingly able address on "Women's Industrial Gains During the Last Half Century." She left the well worn paths usually traversed and entered upon an exhaustive review of her subject, giving figures from various industrial reports to sustain her position. She showed the greater need for women in this age to have an equal chance with men in the battle of life for economic reasons, and deduced from this the conclusion that the need being admitted, the greatest aid to secure the equal chance was the ballot. Her address left a marked impression.

She was followed by Mrs. Anna M. Warden, worthy master of Vineland Grange No. 3, who delivered an interesting address on "Women in the Trades."

Laura M. Barry, organizer of the Knights of Labor, and Mrs. Frank Leslie, the well known publisher, made impressive addresses, and Esther L. Warner handled the subject of "Women as Farmers."

The following ladies participated in the evening's session: Professor Rana A. Michaels, "Women as Educators;" Laura C. Holloway, "Women in Journalism;" Dr. Sarah H. Stevenson, "Women in Medicine;" Ada M. Bittenbender, "Women in Law."

Rev. Ada C. Bowles, "Women and Finance." Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Martha R. Field and Amelia H. Mohl also took part.

A Message From the President.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The president has sent to congress a message recommending legislation to prohibit the importation of swine from France and Germany. It is accompanied by communications from Minister Fendleton and from the consul at Marseilles.

INDIAN DEPREDACTIONS.

The Bloodthirsty Seris Said to be on the War Path in Mexico.

NOGALES, Ariz., March 29.—Reports have reached the officials of Sonora, Mex., to the effect that the Seris Indians, a tribe which inhabits the Tiburon islands, in the Gulf of California, have recently crossed the international straits to the mainland in the state of Sonora. The intelligence states that they are raiding ranches and committing other depredations with a boldness that has struck terror to the peaceful Mexican settlers along the coast.

The scene of their depredations is almost due west from Hermosillo, and while the country thereabouts is sparsely settled, there are a sufficient number of ranches in that section to afford them abundant opportunities for indulging in the destruction of life and property, to their hearts' content.

The Seris number about three hundred in all, and are one of the tallest races on the continent, nearly all measuring six feet four inches. It is claimed by some that they are cannibals. However, they are the only Indians in North America using poisoned arrows, and they prefer raw, decomposed meat to meat that has been cooked, and, in fact, live entirely upon raw food. In stature, looks, language and manners, they are different from any of the Indians in America.

A few years ago a Turk visited their island and he claimed they spoke his tongue. In appearance they resemble the Malaysians, but few civilized people have ever had the courage to visit the island they inhabit, and those who have, and got away alive, are regarded as being decidedly fortunate. Many fishermen have attempted to stop there, but they did not remain long, and considered themselves lucky when they got away.

They have never before been known to leave the island upon depredate excursions and their present raid is a complete surprise to everyone, and especially to the officials. They have often been known to cross over into Sonora on trading expeditions, but they came in small parties, and manifested no desire to commit depredations.

Acting Governor Carroll is taking steps to send a force of troops to the frontier to check their advances, and will place them under the dominion of the state.

JOHN R. DECAUP SURRENDERED.

Two of His Bondsmen Withdraw—A New Bond Required.

CINCINNATI, March 29.—William H. Tarr, one of J. R. DeCamp's bondsmen, has withdrawn and will surrender him to the United States authorities. There are still four other bondsmen.

John B. Bobe, the well known jeweler, another bondsman, also appeared at the district attorney's office, and withdrew from DeCamp's bond. The reasons, as far as learned, for the action of the bondsmen are that they had received information to the effect that DeCamp was preparing to leave the country. It is also said that further discoveries have been made in connection with Metropolitan affairs which are very damaging to DeCamp.

DeCamp was surrendered early this morning, and was brought to the office of his attorney, Judge Jordan. The judge explained why indemnities could not be given in criminal cases. He also said that Tarr could not be released without invalidating the bond. DeCamp would be required to furnish a new bond.

Capt. Montgomery had qualified for $50,000. The bond was for $35,000. Judge Sage said he could allow Montgomery to go on the bond for the prisoner's appearance until Friday morning at 10:30, when a new bond would have to be furnished.

Tarr and Bobe were asked if they feared DeCamp was going to leave them in the lurch by flight. They said no. When pressed for reasons they declined to be interviewed.

The Sandusky River Way Up.

TIFFIN, O., March 29.—Continuous rains for the past forty-eight hours have caused the Sandusky river and its tributaries to overflow their banks, and thousands of acres are submerged, doing great damage to winter wheat. Mechanismsburg, a portion of this city located in the flats, is flooded and the people are using boats for communicating with the other portions. Several washouts are reported on the Cincinnati, Sandusky & Cleveland railroad, and travel is much impeded.

Floods in the South.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 29.—The total rainfall since Sunday night has been 7.7 inches, the largest on record for the same length of time. The heavy rain ceased about 10 o'clock Tuesday, but there has been an intermittent drizzle all day. The Alabama river has been rising at the rate of a foot an hour for about thirty hours, and as the rains have been equally heavy about the headquarters of Coosa, the greatest rise here is not expected until day after to-morrow. A flood higher than that of 1886 is expected.

Two of the Garfields to Wed.

NEW YORK, March 29.—A Mentor, O., special to the Evening Sun announces that Harry Garfield and Miss Belle Mason, of Cleveland, have been engaged for one year, and that they will be married at the same time that Miss Mollie Garfield and J. Stanley Brown are united. In anticipation of the double event the old Garfield mansion has been enlarged and improved at an outlay of $30,000. After the honeymoon, Harry Garfield, with his brother James, will begin the practice of law in Cincinnati.

J. W. Drexel's Funeral.

NEW YORK, March 29.—The funeral of Mr. J. W. Drexel took place at 11 o'clock this morning from the Little Church Around the Corner. The body was taken to Philadelphia for interment.

Hope Given Up.

NEW YORK, March 29.—All hopes of the missing pilot boats, Enchantress and Phantom, are now finally abandoned.

At Carlisle the ordinance requiring all shops and stores to be closed on Sunday is being enforced.

The death of Hon. Wm. Dorsheimer is a loss to the Democratic party. He was one of the staunchest and best among its long list of prominent members. As a journalist, Dorsheimer was not a success. His venture with the New York Star cost him his fortune.

The Democrats of Fleming will hold a county convention Saturday, May 5th, at Flemingsburg, to select delegates to the State convention. A call has been issued for precinct meetings to be held Thursday, May 3rd, to select delegates to the county convention.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "Of all the voters in the history of this country, Federal or State, Governor Buckner, of Kentucky, takes the prize. The boys can not even get a lottery bill through just now."

The Governor is teaching scoundrels that they must emigrate from the State, or quit their monkey business.

AUDITOR FAYETTE HEWITT has at last asked the Legislature to give his office a thorough investigation. If he had made the request days ago it would have been several points in his favor. We fear he made a mistake in not taking this step sooner, but better late than never. If he can show a clean record, well and good. The people will esteem him all the more.

TEXAS has $3,000,000 she has no use for. Better give some to Kentucky.—Cincinnati Telegram.

No, thank you, Kentucky can get along very well without it. But, Mr. Telegram, don't you think the Republican administration at Columbus, O., would like to have one or two millions of it just now? Kentucky's treasury is not empty yet, and that's more than can be said of Ohio's.

The Maysville Republican consoles itself with the hope that Frank Finley will mop up the face of the earth with Frank Wolford. Just twenty-one years ago Frank Finley undertook to do that very thing, with the result that the old war-horse run him through a threshing machine. Since that time Frank Finley has never permitted himself to get in hearing of Frank Wolford's voice, and it is not probable that he ever will.—Louisville Times.

SINCE the defection of Treasurer Tate, we have not heard of a single Democrat turning Republican—and it is fair to presume that the same state of feeling exists all over the State. One man does not constitute the party, and the party ought not to be held responsible for his acts. The loss to the State will not be a single dollar when the business is settled, and the usual majority will be polled at the next election. The masses of the voters are honest, and they want good government, and will have it.—Bourbon News.

The people know the past history of the Republican party in this country, and they know it is "as deep in the mire as the Democrats are in the mud" so far as official corruption is concerned. Shall the party be condemned because it has been deceived by one whom everybody looked upon as the "soul of honor"? We think not. The Democrats will retain the confidence of the people if they see that the State loses none of her cash, and that every effort is made to punish the defaulter.

Timely Advice.

The Fleming True Blue Democrat gives our neighbor a little sensible and very timely advice which it would do well to heed. The True Blue says: "The youthful Maysville Democrat is raising an unnecessary and possibly injurious row over its favorite, Hon. Thomas H. Paynter, for Congress. There is no question that Mr. Paynter is a good Democrat, an able man, strong in the district, and would make a first-class Congressman. If nominated, he would come as near carrying the solid Democratic vote of the district as any man mentioned, but he is not the only formidable man in the party in the district. But we deplore the attempt of imprudent friends to thrust Mr. Paynter forward in such a way as to embitter the friends of other candidates against him before the nomination is made. If the Democrat is honestly a friend of Mr. Paynter, it is not showing it by making enemies for him. If the Democrat is not called off, and its youthful indiscretion curbed, Mr. Paynter will have occasion to exclaim 'Save me from my friends.' We like Tom Paynter, up here in Fleming, and don't want to see him 'pumped out' before the race is called."

DOBYNS-CLARKE.

Brilliant Nuptial Event in the Blue Grass Region.

[Special Correspondence of the BULLETIN]

MILLERSBURG, March 27, 1888.
One of the most notable weddings in Bourbon County for years was the marriage of Miss Fannie Nunn Clarke, oldest daughter of Mr. Charles Clarke, of this place, to Mr. H. F. Dobyns, of Mexico, Mo. Eight hundred tickets had been issued and the crowd at the Christian Church where the nuptials were solemnized was very large. Rev. D. W. Robinson, a former pastor of the Methodist Church, officiated.

The bride in her pure and snowy silk and vapory tulle, glittering with diamonds, was in contrast with her maids, whose costumes varied from opal to pink, fringed with lilies of the valley.

The church was darkened and artificially lighted and decorated with rare flowers and evergreens.

The ushers, four in number, were Henry Miller, Royce Allen, James Cray and Professor Wood.

The bridesmaids and groomsmen were Miss Knight and Mr. C. C. Boyd, the latter of Covington; Miss Lida Clarke and Mr. Green Penley, the latter of Covington; Miss Emma Hunkill and Dr. Smith; Miss Shirley Penley, of Covington, and Dr. Davis, of Mayslick; Miss Nellie Redmon, of Paris, and Mr. J. E. Threlkeld, of Maysville; Miss Allen and Mr. Wm. Clarke.

The presents are almost innumerable and all costly ones. The groom's gifts to the bride were a diamond brooch, diamond earrings, two diamond rings and a gold watch set in diamonds.

The party left on the afternoon train for their future home at Mexico, Mo.

Miss Knight and Miss Lida Clarke and Mr. Wm. Clarke and Mr. Threlkeld accompanied the party to Cincinnati, to be present at the reception given at Judge Penley's in Covington.

Among the guests from Maysville and Mason County were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hopper, Mrs. Eliza Clift, Misses Thille Clift, Sudie and Latham, and Mr. Lee Fox.

The bride is well known in Mason County, where she has a large circle of friends.

MAYSVILLE and Mason County was largely represented at Flemingsburg last court day. The True Blue says: "Among those noticed were Dr. John Fleming, C. C. Hopper, Dave Hechinger, Barbour Russell, J. L. Browning, W. W. McIlvaine, R. H. Newell, H. G. Wells, John T. Parker, N. Rensselaer, R. H. Hinton, John Newton, Ed. Martin, Jas. W. Fitzgerald, Chas. C. Dobyns, of Maysville; H. Thompson, W. E. Clift, Sam Raymond, Col. Auxier and C. C. Clarke, Mayslick; T. L. Best, and O. B. Thomas, Helena; A. D. Dickson, Orangeburg; J. J. Owens, Howard Farrow, of the county."

GORDON-CLARKE.

A Very Pleasant Matrimonial Event
at the M. E. Church, South.

Marriage of Miss Mary G. Clarke, of this City, to Mr. Harry Gordon, of Wichita.

The marriage of Miss Mary G. Clarke, of this city, to Mr. Harry L. Gordon, of Wichita, took place last evening at eight o'clock in the M. E. Church, South, on West Second street.

The pulpit and altar were very handsomely decorated with flowers and evergreens, and the scene within the church as the couple plighted their troth, was a very bright and lovely one. Professor Kappes presided at the organ, and the sweet strains of the wedding march pealed forth as the bridal party entered the room and approached the altar. The ushers, Messrs. John M. Hunt and John C. Everett, George W. Rogers and Lee Brown, entered the east aisle, followed by the bride's two little nieces, Lida and Florence Rogers, who were robed in white and carried tiny baskets of flowers. Next came the bride, accompanied by her brother, Mr. Frank Clarke, of Chicago. The couple were met in front of the pulpit by the groom and his brother, Mr. H. M. Gordon, of Metamora, Ind., who had approached from the west aisle. The beautiful service of the Episcopal Church was read by Rev. D. A. Beardsley, the officiating minister, the couple repeating the words audibly as they plighted their vows. The bride and groom then knelt and received the blessing, after which they left by the west aisle, followed by the little maids of honor and the ushers in the order named. The party then repaired to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Rogers, of East Third street, where they were entertained in an elegant manner. Only the relatives and a few intimate friends of the couple were present at the reception. The bridal party left on the Bostona this morning for the home of the groom's parents at Metamora, Ind. From there the couple will proceed to Wichita, Kas., in a few days, where they will reside.

The bride is the youngest daughter of the late John R. Clarke, an attorney of this city. She is a sister of Mrs. James H. Rogers. Possessed of a bright and happy disposition, she has endeared herself to a large circle of friends. She was more beautiful than ever in her bridal robe of white moire silk, entrain, trimmed in point lace, with loops of moire ribbon down the front of waist, with a pearl suspended from each loop. Her ornaments consisted of pearls and diamonds.

The groom is the son of a wealthy manufacturer of Metamora, Ind. He is an attorney by profession, having received his first lessons in law in the office of Senator McDonald, of Ind. He located a few years ago at Wichita, Kansas, and is now one of the promising young attorneys of that city.

The presents were handsome and very numerous.

The occasion was an especially happy one to the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Clarke, as all her children and grandchildren were present.

Among the ladies at the reception were the following, with the costumes worn:

Mrs. Jennie O. Clarke, sister of the bride; white cloth, silk trimmings.
Mrs. James H. Rogers, sister of the bride; orange colored satin, diamonds.
Mrs. J. W. Shackelford, of Bellville, Kansas, sister of the groom; blue goblin silk.
Mrs. H. R. Lennard, of Metamora, Ind., sister of the groom; lace suit.
Miss Frankie Morrison, of Chicago; brown silk and brocade velvet.
Miss Mary Beardsley; light blue silk, pearl trimmings.
Miss Bessie Johnson; white satin, brocade overdress.
Mrs. Joseph Perrie; black velvet, jet trimmings.
Miss Emma Campbell; blue silk, white lace trimmings.
Mrs. Katie Pearce; black satin and black lace.
Miss Bessie Wadsworth; white moire silk.
Miss Belle Davis Phister; delicate blue silk, brocade.

OWENS & BARKLEY call the attention of the farmers to the fact that they have the agency for the sale of the celebrated Ross cutters, both hand and power, also lever cutters, which will be sold for less money than they can be bought anywhere else. They have a large stock of "O & B." and Haven's roller and lever cutters at very low prices. Full stock of hoes, rakes, forks, shovels, picks, mattocks, &c., &c. They invite all interested in such goods to call and see them and get prices. Having sold about three hundred plows, they have a few left at low prices.

Stock, Field and Farm.

The Department of Agriculture places the number of horses, mules, cattle, sheep and hogs in this country at 2,499,000,000.

It is a common occurrence in London, between the months of October and January inclusive, for 50,000 bushels of American and Canadian apples to be sold in a single week. England now pays yearly $40,000,000 for foreign fruit, for which less than $5,000,000 was paid in 1848.

Not only will coal ashes furnish a fine place for hens to roll in, but if allowed free access to them they will eat the small partly-burned bits of coal that come through the sieve. It is one way the hens have of getting solid material in their gizzards with which to grind their food.

It is interesting to note the enormous prices that have been paid and offered for horses. Smuggler, $40,000; Woodford Mambino, $40,000, refused; Pocahontas, $35,000; Jay Gould, $30,000; Lady Thorne, $30,000; Blackwood, $30,000; Governor Sprague, $27,500; Happy Medium, $25,000; George M. Patchen, $25,000; Sam Purdy, $22,000; Rosalind, $20,000; Lulu, $20,000; Edward Everett, $20,000; Socrates, $20,000; Startle, $20,000; Lady Maud, $20,000; Jules Jurgenson, $19,000; Gilbreth Knox, $17,000; Lady Stout, $15,000; Allie West, $15,000; Kirkwood, $14,000; Electioneer, $12,500; Mambino Pilot, $12,000; $30,000 was recently refused for Belle Hamlin, a total of $564,000 for twenty-four horses.—Kentucky Stock Farm.

Nicholas Circuit Court.

The Nicholas Circuit Court has been in session several days. Hon. Charles L. Lytle presided as special judge at the beginning, but Judge Cole has returned from Frankfort and has resumed his official duties. Commonwealth's Attorney Sallee has determined to test the right of the Governor to pardon a person before trial, and has appealed fourteen cases against Judge Banta for violating the local option laws. Banta was pardoned soon after the indictments were reported. The following cases have been disposed of:

Orie Richie, $50 fine for selling liquor without license.
Samuel Yates, $10 fine for damaging property.
John Graham, (col.), $25 fine and ten days in jail for carrying concealed weapons.
Charles Robertson, $30 fine and ten days in jail, same offense.
Thomas Hackett, $30 fine for selling liquor in violation of the local option law.
J. W. Barnett, $25 fine in one and $30 in another, same offense, and three dismissed.
Dr. Ludsay, $10 fine in two, $25 in four and six dismissed, same offense.

BOURBON COUNTY must have a queer lot of young ladies if they are all like the following. The News says: "Last week, a young lady about two miles from here looked over into an old flower pit in her garden, and saw something which so astounded her that she ran into the house and fell over on a bed, where she fainted. Her sister, after throwing some water in her face and administering some camphor, said: 'Sister, what on earth is the matter? What has alarmed you so?' After opening her eyes and throwing up both hands, the gasping reply was: 'A turkey's nest!'"

THE senior grade of the High School will give a literary entertainment tomorrow afternoon under the management of Miss H. Moore, which promises to be a very enjoyable affair. A few young ladies and gentlemen have invitations. The following is the programme: Song by the school.

A BATTLE IMPENDING.

They Are Being Steadily Surrounded by the Abyssinians—Forty Thousand People Made Homeless by Floods in Hungary. Berlin Notes—Other Foreign.

LONDON, March 29.—The Abyssinians advanced to Saati yesterday evening. The Italians formed in order of battle, but they were not attacked. A column of Abyssinians are steadily surrounding the Italians, and it is expected that they will concentrate at Dogali, cutting off communication by road and telegraph.

The Italians have their most advanced post at Saati, which is only fifteen miles inland, and west from Massowah. It has been fortified by a stone inclosure, the wall being four feet thick, with sandbags on top of it and a trench in front. It is one of the elevated plateaus of the Shone country that ascends gradually to the mountain levels and is cut into sections by narrow defiles and valleys. In its vicinity are numerous isolated conical hills, and the whole of that section is covered with thorn bushes, from four to seven feet high, with long grass between them, making a cover this time of year that conceals all military operations. That is the reason that the Italians will not "force the fight," and are altogether ignorant of the number opposed to them.

Three weeks have elapsed since Ras Alulu had his war drums beaten at Asmara which implied a general call to arms of not only the soldiers but the population generally in that section. As every Ethiopian is a soldier the force is probably large.

The total Italian force is estimated at 18,000 men and the effective army of Saati does not probably exceed 12,000, but splendidly armed with breech-loading rifles, mountain batteries and field artillery, there being of the latter three batteries of six breech-loading seven centimeters bore guns and two mitrailleuses each.

Dogali is four miles east of Saati and the terminus of the short railroad built by the Italians, upon which they depend for supplies. It is this which the Abyssinians threaten with a view doubtless to force Gen. Marzano out of his entrenched position at Saati.

The Italian army is in three divisions, under Gens. Gene, Cagui and Baldera, respectively.

The Terrible Floods in Hungary.

BERLIN, March 29.—Forty thousand people have been rendered homeless by the floods, hundreds of villages have been submerged and forty towns and hamlets have completely disappeared. The Elbe, Nogat, Vistula and Oder rivers cover one hundred miles wide in many districts, and an enormous amount of damage has been done to property. It is impossible to estimate the number of lives lost, but it will reach large proportions.

While trying to break an ice gorge on the Elbe by blasting, fourteen soldiers were killed.

The Warta, a tributary of the Vistula, has overflowed its banks near the Russian frontier, submerging the city of Posen. The waters are still rising and the entire district is flooded.

The whole district of Bodorog in northern Hungary is inundated, the river having swept away twenty villages. The district of Fehergyarmat is in a heap of ruins.

The distress all over Germany is very great, and the newspapers suggest the granting of state assistance to the sufferers.

Berlin Notes.

BERLIN, March 29.—In commenting upon the Boulanger excitement in France the North German Gazette says the voice of the French people tend more and more toward the dangerous alternative of reaction or revolution.

The Kreuz Zeitung, referring to the election, says: "The end is near, but it is hard to say who will give the present regime in France its death blow."

The emperor sleeps well, his appetite is good, his weight is increasing and he is more cheerful.

The National Liberal press, that formerly was devoted to Bismarck, makes covert attacks upon the emperor and empress. Bismarck is not suspected of encouraging it.

Foreign Notes.

Said Kahle will succeed to the sultanate of Zanzibar.

Lord Salisbury has had a prolonged interview with Baron De Staal, the Russian ambassador, at which fresh proposals with regard to Bulgaria were discussed. It is reported that the result of the conference was an approach to an entente.

A mob of women in Constantinople sought to obtain the arrears of pensions due their husbands from the government and besieged the office of minister of France. The minister was secreted to escape the fury of the women. The mob killed a woman who was advising them to make their demands quietly.

MUTILATED BY HOGS.

An Aged Farmer Found Dead in a Pig Pen at New Richmond, Ohio.

NEW RICHMOND, O., March 29.—Apost John Knauss, a wealthy German farmer, sixty years of age, residing on Ten-mile creek, six miles north of this place, was missed from his home Monday evening at 7 o'clock, but his wife, thinking possibly he had accompanied his son to a neighbor's, search was not made for him until his son came home about midnight, when, after a short search, he was found dead, lying in a pig pen near the house, most horribly mangled, his face mutilated beyond recognition, the jugular vein torn asunder, the clothing torn from his body, and a great hole eaten in his side. He had evidently gone to feed the pigs about 7 o'clock, and slipped and fell in climbing into the pen, striking his temple and rendering him unconscious and at the mercy of the brutes.

The Pence-Williams Verdict.

PORTLAND Ind., March 29.—The jury in the Pence-Williams murder case, which was sent out at 9 o'clock last night, returned a verdict of acquittal at 2 o'clock this morning. The verdict gives general satisfaction.
